Presidio, Inc. Announces Secondary Common Stock Offering

New York, NY – February 7, 2019 – Presidio, Inc. (NASDAQ:PSDO) (together with its subsidiaries, “Presidio” or the “Company”), a leading North American IT solutions provider delivering Digital Infrastructure, Cloud and Security solutions to create agile, secure infrastructure platforms for its customers, today announced that AP VIII Aegis Holdings, L.P. (“Aegis LP”), an affiliate of investment funds managed by affiliates of Apollo Global Management, LLC (NYSE:APO) intends to offer for sale in an underwritten secondary offering (the “offering”) 4,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock pursuant to the shelf registration statement (File No. 333-224462) filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on April 26, 2018.

Upon completion of the proposed offering, Aegis LP will own 40,050,000 shares of the Company’s common stock. Upon completion of the proposed offering, the Company will no longer qualify as a “controlled company” within the meaning of the NASDAQ corporate governance requirements. The Company is not selling any shares and will not receive any proceeds from the proposed offering.

J.P. Morgan is acting as the sole underwriter for the proposed offering. The closing share price of the Company’s common stock on February 7, 2019 was $15.85. The Company filed a shelf registration statement (including a prospectus) with the SEC on April 26, 2018 for the offering that became effective on May 2, 2018. Before making any investment decision, you should read the registration statement, prospectus and prospectus supplement in that registration statement and other documents the Company has filed with the SEC for more complete information about the Company and the proposed offering.

The Company intends to file a further prospectus supplement with respect to the proposed offering. You may obtain these documents for free by visiting EDGAR on the SEC Web site at: www.sec.gov. Copies of the Presidio prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus relating to the proposed offering, when available, also may be obtained by writing or telephoning us at:

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

This press release contains “forward looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The use of words such as “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends,” “plans” and “believes,” among others, generally identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include statements relating to: future financial performance, business prospects and strategy, anticipated trends, prospects in the industries in which our businesses operate and other similar matters. These forward looking statements are based on management’s current expectations and assumptions about future events, which are inherently subject to uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Actual results could differ materially from those contained in these forward looking statements for a variety of reasons, including, among others: risks and uncertainties related to the capital markets, changes in senior management at Presidio, changes in our relationship with our vendor partners, adverse changes in economic conditions, risks resulting from a decreased demand for Presidio’s information technology solutions, risks relating to rapid technological change in Presidio’s industry, risks relating to the inability to realize the full amount of our backlog and risks relating to acquisitions or regulatory changes. Certain of these and other risks and uncertainties are discussed in Presidio’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Other unknown or unpredictable factors that could also adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations may arise from time to time. In light of these risks and uncertainties, these forward looking statements may not prove to be accurate. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on these forward looking statements, which only reflect the views of our management as of the date of this press release. We do not undertake to update these forward-looking statements.
