ABOUT PRESIDIO

Presidio is a leading IT solutions provider assisting clients as they harness technology innovation and simplify IT complexity to digitally transform their businesses and drive return on IT investment. Our Digital Infrastructure, Cloud and Security solutions enable our approximately 7,000 middle market, enterprise and government clients to take advantage of new digital revenue streams, omnichannel customer experience models, and the rich data insights generated by those interactions. We deliver this technology expertise through a full life-cycle model of professional, managed, and ongoing support services, including strategy, consulting, design and implementation. Through over 60 US offices and 2,800+ professionals, including 1,600 technical engineers, we are trusted advisors to our clients on a local level while also bringing our national scale and expertise to bear. We had $2.7 billion in annual revenue in fiscal 2016 and are majority owned by funds affiliated with Apollo Global Management, LLC (NYSE:APO).
